Digital Libraries

Focus on developing specialized knowledge skills that will allow you to lead the creation and maintenance of digital libraries.

Career options include:

- Building digital libraries and collections and institutional repositories
- Metadata areas
- Data preservation and archives
- Digitization in special collections or cultural heritage institutions
- Information architecture
- Digital content management areas

Admission information

⇒ Online application

⇒ A short (between 500-700 words) personal statement

⇒ 3 letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with your accomplishments and your academic record

⇒ Transcript from all post-secondary education

⇒ GRE scores for applicants with a GPA under 3.0

Required core courses	Highly recommended courses
• LSC 551: Organization of Information	• LSC 612: Foundations of Digital Libraries
• LSC 553: Information Sources and Services	• LSC 615: Metadata
• LSC 555: Information Systems in Libraries and Information Centers	• LSC 650: Information Architecture and Web Design
• LSC 557: The Information Professions in Society	• LSC 753: Programming for Web Applications
	• LSC 654: Database Management

ALA ACCREDITED — AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION — COMMITTEE ON ACCREDITATION

Learn more at lis.catholic.edu